

“Fun with Watercolor”

one day workshop

With Lorrie Herman

Interested in getting your brushes wet with a little watercolor? Come and learn the fundamentals of watercolor with Lorrie Herman, a professional artist and Signature Member of the Virginia Watercolor Society. She will introduce you to the basics of watercolors by demo painting, explaining watercolor techniques and work on painting exercises to help you understand the beauty of watercolor. Her aim is to instill in her students the importance of reviewing and retaining strong foundational skills using this beautiful medium.

Artists of all levels are welcome.

In this workshop you will:

- Develop fundamental painting techniques through a series of exercises
- Learn how to mix colors
- Understand color value
- Develop a sense for composition
- Create your own painting

Where:

Emmanuel Episcopal Church
Parrish House
105 E. Washington Street
Middleburg, VA 20117

Parking is available behind the Church or along the street at either end of town.
Enter the building behind the church from the parking lot. Take the elevator to the second floor and go to the large meeting room which faces the back of the building.

Date and Time:

Thursday, April 20, 2023
9:00 am – 4:00 pm, with a one-hour lunch break

Class Size: Maximum 12

Cost: $165

Supplies: included

Click to visit Lorrie's Website

Lorrie Herman

Lorrie has been an artist all her life and professional for the past 20 years. She primarily paints in both watercolors and oils in a contemporary representational style. She's been involved in the Northern Virginia art community as a member of many organizations, such as, the Loudoun Sketch Club, Signature member of the Virginia Watercolor Society, Potomac Valley Watercolorists, and the Fairfax Arts Council. She's been an art instructor at Arts Herndon, Great Falls Arts, Compass Classes and other private and public venues. Over the years Lorrie has shown her work at several shows and local galleries, such as, The Artist in Middleburg Gallery, The Cooley Gallery, The Vulcan Gallery at the Workhouse, Art Sweet Art Gallery, Vale Arts, Art at the Mill, 868 Estate Vineyards, Oatlands Plantation, etc. She also participates in local plein air painting events.

Lorrie graduated from the University of Maryland, College Park with a BS degree in Advertising Design and a minor in Art History. She worked professionally as a graphic designer and has continued as a freelance designer. She keeps current with her painting education by taking workshops with master painters and painting with other artists.

Website - www.lorrieherman.com

Email - lahermanart@cox.net

IG: LorrieHermanArt